The service provides the voter with an opportunity to clarify his or her constituency, in which he is registered for voting in all elections announced and not yet in the Republic of Latvia. Within the scope of the service, a voter has the possibility to change the constituency or to register in the constituency in conformity with the announced election procedure, if the voter in another constituency owns real estate registered in accordance with the procedures specified by law, regarding which the information is included in the Land Register.

It is possible to perform a change or registration of the constituency only within the time period specified by law prior to the elections.
