

Administrative liability in the field of residence permits

Published: 06.01.2021.

According to section 68.² of the Immigration Law, a warning or a fine of up to seventy units of fine shall be applied for staying in the Republic of Latvia without a valid travel document, visa, residence permit, Union citizen's certificate of registration, permanent residence certificate, health insurance policy, or for violation of other conditions related to staying in the Republic of Latvia.

According to section 68.¹ of the Immigration Law, a warning or a fine of up to thirty units of fine shall be applied for the failure to register the residence permit.

The first paragraph of Section 3 of the Law on Administrative Penalties for Violations in the field of Administration, Public Order and Use of the Official Language states that a warning or a fine of up to one hundred forty units of fine shall be applied to a natural person for the failure to provide information, improper provision of information, or provision of false information.

<https://www.pmlp.gov.lv/en/administrative-liability-field-residence-permits>