

Passports

Published: 06.10.2020.

Citizen's passport

Citizen's passport is a person's identity document issued to the citizens of the Republic of Latvia.

View more

Alien's (non-citizen's) passport

Latvian alien's (non-citizen's) passport is a person's identity document, ensuring its holder the rights to reside in the territory of Latvia, travel abroad, as well as other rights.

View more

Stateless person's travel document

The stateless person's travel document is a person's identification document, issued by authorised state institutions, which according to the international agreements binding to Latvia, existing laws and other normative acts entitles the document's...

View more

Refugee's travel document

A refugee's travel document confirms the identity of its holder and is envisaged for travelling abroad. It is issued to persons who have been granted the refugee status according to Asylum Law.

View more

Travel document (Alternative status)

An alternative status travel document confirms the identity of its holder and is envisaged for travelling abroad. It is issued to a person who has been granted the alternative status according to Asylum Law and who has no valid travel document issued by..

View more

Diplomatic passport

The diplomatic passport approves its holder the official representative of the Republic of Latvia in foreign countries.

View more

Service passport

The service passport of the Republic of Latvia is a travel document proving that its holder has high position in the government or in the diplomatic or consular service and is travelling abroad to carry out activities at the request of state...

View more
