

The stateless person's travel document is issued for two years.

Where the stateless person's travel document can be obtained?

Documents to apply for the stateless person's travel document are submitted and the document is issued at the territorial section of the OCMA.

Documents to apply for the travel document.

What to do if the passport is lost?

If the passport has been lost, stolen or taken away by force, the person shall inform about this fact the passport issuing authority (the OCMA), the State Police or the State Border Guard, or, if abroad, the Diplomatic or Consular Representative Office of Latvia within 5 days. Within 30 days after the determination of the fact the person shall submit documents to apply for a new passport. If the person has reported about the loss of the passport in writing, in case the passport is found, it becomes invalid and a new passport must be obtained.

<https://www.pmlp.gov.lv/en/stateless-persons-travel-document>