Within the scope of the service, a person has the possibility to make payment of the State fee for the receipt of information from the Register of Natural Persons requested by the Office of Citizenship and Migration Affairs.

Payment of the State fee may be made for:

- the receipt of information (including a statement regarding personal status) regarding himself or herself, his or her child, who is less than 18 years old, or a person under guardianship or guardianship (per person), if it has been prepared on the basis of the criteria specified by the requester of the information (for example, regarding family status, historical address, personal identification document data, etc.);
- up-to-date information regarding the declared, registered or designated place of residence of his or her child under 18 years of age or under guardianship;
- any information in the Register of Natural Persons regarding himself or herself, his or her child under 18 years of age or as a person under guardianship or under guardianship, if requested more than twice in a calendar year.
