Taking into account the geopolitical challenges prevailing in the world, a branch of the Asylum Seekers Centre (hereinafter – ASAC) with accommodation capacity for up to 252 persons was established in the Liepna Parish boarding house building.

On Thursday, 17 August, from 12:00 to 13:00 the representatives of media are invited to visit the newly opened ASAC LIEPNA in Aluksna Municipality Liepna Rural Territory.

The representatives of media are invited to visit the newly opened Asylum Seekers Accommodation Centre LIEPNA in Aluksne Municipality, Liepna Rural Territory.

During the event the media will have the opportunity to get introduced with the premises and technical improvements made in the building.

Representatives of media are invited to apply in advance their participation by writing to the e-mail prese@pmlp.gov.lv or calling to the phone +371 26458928 until 16 August at 16:30 o'clock.

The establishment of the ASAC Liepna Branch was implemented with the support of the European Union Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund Emergency Financial Instrument project HOME/2021/AMIF/AG/EMAS/TF1/LV/0003 "Addressing urgent accommodation and humanitarian needs arising from the increased number of asylum seekers in Latvia".
